At the Speakers' table are Dr. Crank, Dr. Connelley, Dr. Lawrence, Mr. Sisney and Mrs. Besse.

The big project of the academic year was the North Central Visitation. Every seven years, schools in Chicago are visited by a selected committee of educators who evaluate, plan and recommend with the director and faculty the future of the school. In April of this year, we welcomed a host of distinguished visitors from the Chicago area and several local universities. The three-day visitation opened with a dinner and was followed by class visitation, reports, and meetings. The visitation concluded two years of self-study by the Jones' faculty; these days proved to be hard work, but profitable to the faculty, students, and visitors.

A Pause for Spiritual Reflection

Twice a year St. Mary's Church opens its doors for a day of spiritual guidance set aside for the Jones family. On this day there is no communication barrier. It is a time to open our hearts and our minds to the ever present problems of today's world. Together here we have prayed for an end to the war in Viet Nam, for understanding among our fellow men, and for peace throughout the world. We left with the confidence that our prayers were heard and will be answered - someday.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

TO THE 1970 GRADUATING CLASS
JONES COMMERCIAL HIGH SCHOOL

It is traditional on commencement day to congratulate the senior class and to address all of the graduates in terms of what the future holds for them. I am breaking that tradition, and instead of congratulating and addressing the class as a whole, I would prefer to direct my thoughts to each of you individually, through this letter.

If I had the opportunity to greet each of you individually, this is what I would say:

Congratulations -- on being who you are, a unique human being capable of making a special contribution to our nation and the world. Congratulations on being fortunate enough to have parents and teachers and administrators who care deeply about you.

I don't have to tell you what the future holds for you. You know that life has responsibilities as well as rewards, failures as well as successes, tragedies as well as joys. You know that our nation offers splendid opportunity -- and faces grave problems.

On your commencement day, then, the important question is what you hold for the future. I am confident that your special and irreplaceable qualities of mind and heart and spirit will contribute to the building of a strong, free and just nation and a peaceful world. As you go forward you take with you my best wishes and highest hopes.

Jonesites on the Job

A valuable part of every Jonesite's education is the actual testing of her skills in the business community. A senior works half-a-day in an office selected to utilize her major field, and she is carefully supervised by a teacher-coordinator so that she may grow in skills and be a valuable asset to her employer.

A) At Harris Trust and Savings Bank, Elizabeth Jovanovich and Marylou Kleifges work with their supervisor Miss Mary Ann Beuthin and their teacher-coordinator Miss Irma Carter.

B) Mary Melendez, a steno major, takes a letter from Mr. James T. Chalikis, second vice-President of American National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago.

C) Christine Schergen another sten major employed by Home Federal Savings takes dictation from Mr. G. Brent Minor, Assistant Secretary.

Publications Banquet

Hard work takes energy and energy requires good food; therefore, the hard workers, the editors and staff members of the Jones Reporter and the Jonesite, gathered together in the spirit of relaxation to pay tribute to the workers and to share a delightful dinner. Parents were invited to dinner and to hear our honored guest Miss Genevieve Flavin, the editor of "The Voice of Youth" column in the Tribune, give an account of her early days as a young newspaper reporter.

Pins and certificates were given to the editors and staff members. Mr. Carey, a former sports writer himself and a great booster of the schools' publications, was on hand to encourage and congratulate the students.

Blanca Reynoso and Anna Hernandez receive their certificates from Mr. Tryba.

Awards

For the second year in a row Jones has won a first place trophy for transcription. Mr. Carey congratulates Mary Ann Gall, the winner.

Nancy Bertucci shows her father her pin for Journalism.

Awards for encouragement, achievement and ability are an established policy, and the recipients of these awards work hard to deserve them. Perfect posture, attendance, spelling, because they are desirable business traits, are regarded along with excellence in the major field of study. Happy Jones girls here receive trophies, pins, certificates of merit and bouquets of red roses.

In city-wide competition our girls have come home with praise and trophies for outstanding achievements. The Jones' girl is not only pretty and well-groomed but also a promising scholar.

Congratulations

Smiles and perfect posture belong to Penny Black, Nadeja Davis, and Agnes Belgarbo.

Mr. Carey presents Katy Engel with an award in marketing.

Genevieve Flavin, Tribune's "Voice of Youth" Editor congratulates certificate winner Cathy Golobic.

Miss Business, Donna DeCarlo receives roses from Mr. Jack Burns.

Posture Perfect Plus

While academic skills are important at Jones, personal appearance is also essential. To help the students develop poise, the Physical Education Department directed the annual posture contest again. Contestants were judged on four phases of posture: walking, standing, sitting, and exercising. The distinguished panel of judges viewed each contestant with intense concentration, selected ten finalists and awarded prizes to the three best. The honor of Miss Posture for 1970 went to Miss Penny Black.

All were congratulated by Mr. Carey.

Model Tryouts

A professional staff of Chicago newspaper fashion writers evaluate the candidate models for our annual fall fashion show. They look for posture, grooming, figure and poise. The girls selected undergo weeks of training in fashion and modeling techniques. Montgomery Ward and the fashion editors of Chicago participated in the selection of our stars for Beauty and the Budget.

The candidates for the fashion show smile hopefully before parading in front of the judges.

Beauty and the Budget

Folk songs were provided for the pleasure of the audience.

The Jones boys contributed to the afternoon with their skit.

The theme for this year's fashion extravaganza was Beauty and the Budget. Since each girl at Jones is required to dress for school as if she were a career business woman, the title and the idea of beauty and the budget were chosen. The clothes from Montgomery Ward were selected in keeping with this theme. Included in the selection were clothes for business woman's night on the town.

This year's 39th annual fall fashion show was held at the Grand Ballroom of the Conrad Hilton; before a capacity crowd, the models paraded in their beautifully selected wardrobes. Entertainment was provided by the many talented stars in music, dancing, singing, and comedy.

The spanish Club gave us guitar music from south of the border.

The fashion show marked the initial appearance of the Jones cheerleaders.

As We Dance

This spring Jones' fancy turned from the routine to the romantic; the setting was the lovely Williford Room of the Conrad Hilton Hotel where soft lights and the scintillating strains of Arne Prager and his orchestra enhanced the mood for "A Time For Us." We Jones girls were resplendent in silk, satin, and synthetics and cast a spell of enchantment over our escorts. The lovely evening, soft and gentle, reminded all of us that the prom was coming soon, and we would be the stars again for the evening.

Groovin' with the Impulses

The ticket committee happily greets another young man.

The Seniors started the fall social season with a semi-formal dance. A "groovy" band, the Impulses, played music of the moment, loud and clear, with an electrified beat which helped shake the leaves off the trees. The dance floor was filled with appreciative dancers doing "The Popcorn," "Funky Chicken," and "Football." These highly individual dances were "now" dances done with style.

Afro-Dance

"Young, Gifted and Black" was the theme of a very lively dance sponsored by the Afro Club. The Jonesites danced in everything from mod to merry fashions to selected records which were super amplified in the gym. The mild October weather permitted the dancers to relax under the stars in the patio; refreshments, relaxation and talk filled the inbetween time in the dining room.

There is always work to be done by the Club officers and volunteers.

Special sewing talents produced new dresses for the dance.

In a Latin Mood

The newly-formed Spanish Club gave their first social affair called, "In a Latin Mood." They invited the "For Brothers Only," a rock band, decorated the gym with pinatas and cooperated with Bowen and Harrison High Schools in order to give one of the best remembered dances. The dance, besides being a pleasure, was profitable too, thankfully, since it was given to raise money for a scholarship. The hope is to send a Jones student to college.

 MUCHAS GRACIAS, SENORITAS

"Big Sister" is Watching

To make our new juniors feel at home, Big Sister, a senior, adopts and welcomes a junior, Little Sister. At this year's party, Miss Heinz and Mrs. Howard sang a greeting to the audience in the auditorium. Banana-eating, folk-singing, story-telling and judo delighted the juniors who were then invited to have refreshments in the dining room. Remember and love your "Little Sister" was the order of the day.

Halloween

The Junior class finds another excuse for frivolity and adds a Halloween party to the calendar at Jones. The costumes were wild, everything from Tiny Tim to the Flying Nun. Seniors were really spooked by all the unsuual happenings that day. The fun of the day made seniors wish they were juniors again(?), but only for a day. The juniors discovered that getting to the stars is easy if you have a broom.

Christmas Stars on Stage

Two members of the Bulletin Board Club, Kathy Tomasik and Marianne Triolo, work on Santa's beard.

Christmas is a very special affair at Jones. Being on State Street, we catch the spirit early when "The Street" in late November becomes festive with holiday lights. The decorating spirit is first felt while moving along the well-decorated bulletin boards in the corridors. From these, the divisions catch enthusiasm and cheerful boards soon brighten the rooms. Since a prize is offered to the best decorated room the competition becomes keen. Miss Leavitt's division won first prize with the board pictured above.

Dear Ann Landers,

It's not that we have overwhelming problems at this school, but you see there are about five times as many girls as there are boys at school and well... Please help, tell the boys that Jones is a wonderful place for them too, and the Jones' girls are the prettiest, smartest, nicest girls twinkling around town. And, dear Ann, make mine six feet tall and nice!!!!

Lovingly,

A Jonesite

Baby Doll Day

Have you ever seen an eighteen year old baby? Each year Jones sets aside a day for the seniors to revert to their childhood. On this day Seniors put on their favorite baby outfits and act like babies all day long. A contest is held to determine the prettiest baby. The height of Baby Doll Day is the announcement of the prettiest baby.

You must have been a beautiful baby.
'Cause baby look at you now.

Time to Serve

Being a good citizen of the community is one of our goals; with this idea of service in mind, smiling Jones girls were busy around town selling peanuts for Kiwanis. The domestic arts are not foreign to our skillful business minds, and busy hands proved it by baking many beautiful cakes for the U. S. O. which serves the needs of servicemen visiting Chicago. But the biggest project of the year came at Christmas, and the Jones girls really put soul into their giving. They collected and packed food for Operation Breadbasket; they purchased, wrapped and presented gifts to the elderly men and women of Ridge-Manor Convalescent Home. Busy girls found the time to serve others.

D.E.C.A. Breakfast

Sometimes in the busy year we have to pause and say "Thank you" to all those wonderful employers who help us. Students who participate in the Distributive Education Program invite their supervisors to breakfast, a long leisurely breakfast planned to break the usual fast pace of the ordinary work day. It's a welcome change of pace and our way of showing appreciation for their help and cheerful advice.

A grateful daughter welcomes her mother to the Tea.

Time for Tea

Seniors took time from their busy schedules to pay tribute to their mothers. The Mother and Daughter Tea was a pleasant afternoon of entertainment and refreshments. The informal entertainment included music and singing and a Jones version of Hair. Later, in the mood of calorie abandonment, wonderful hors d'oeuvres were served followed by pastries, punch, tea and coffee.

Seniors with their proud mothers toured the building and visited classrooms. Some parents met briefly with faculty members and expressed gratitude for such an enjoyable afternoon.

Roses for Miss Heinz showed the Seniors' gratitude for the preparations which she made to bring together the home and the school families under very convivial circumstances. More tea, please.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williams address a guidance meeting.

Welcome to Jones

Visitors are frequent and welcome at Jones; they are invited to visit and speak by the Guidance Department, the Current Events Club, the Afro-American, and the Spanish Clubs. With them they bring a wide range of experience and share with us their wisdom and practical suggestions. We are grateful to all of them for taking the time to be with us, for their ideas help us to evaluate our education in terms of our careers.

Almost daily, we see part of the world at our door; visitors from Japan, Germany, Scotland and elsewhere stop in to see Jones in action. They are conducted throughout the building by a Jones Hostess and met at the class door by a receptionist. A smile tells them they are welcome guests and we are pleased to meet them.

Director, Jones Commercial High School

Dear Class of 1970

When, years from now, you thumb through these pages to revive the Golden memories of your Jones years, you may want to think back to the frightening problems which afflicted the world at the time you were preparing for your debut.

The man on the moon became an amazing reality; our young men continued to die in Viet Nam; the world suddenly realized the crises of over population, pollution, human rights, revolution on the college and high school campuses, the generation gap, crime in the streets, urbanization and the beginning of the Women's Liberation Movement... These were the headlines which screamed in the daily press and flashed on the TV screens.

You wondered apprehensively what it was all about and what was really relevant on the eve of your own involvement in the messed-up world. Yes, even religion was torn with uncertainty. Indeed, these were soul-stirring days.

One thing was clear, however; that was the developing struggle of women for equality. Women were underpaid according to the standards of men. Women were always shunted to inferior positions in the roles of life. But women were determined to gain their rightful recognition. It was known that 9 out of 10 women would hold jobs or work in their own businesses or professions during some part of their working lifetime.

Sincerely, your faculty hoped that its guidance in some small way helped to prepare you for this maelstrom. We prayed together each day for world peace. We studied together. We considered man's inhumanity to man. We searched long and hard for the true answers.

We admired you for your responsiveness to our earnest efforts. We were impressed by your magnificent self-discipline. We thought how tremendous you were as young people and what great potentiality you had for helping save humanity. True happiness will be gained only in proportion as you serve others. May the years be kind to you.

God love you!

Cheerleaders

Jonesite Cheerleaders in search of a team. New in the way of activities in 1969-1970 at Jones were the Cheerleaders who were organized under the direction of Miss Powell. The happy occasion called for an article in one of Chicago's major newspapers. As a result, the famous Jonesites were invited to cheer at one of the Chicago's Bulls' games. There was plenty after that for the members to do, they participated in the fall show, cheered for students' games and attended the boys' gymnastic display.

Jones Reporter

When a Jones Reporter says, "I work for a paper Downtown," she means it. The only difference between the big city desk and room 507 is location. All the important things that the big city newspapers miss, we print. Therefore, it is really mandatory if you want to be well-informed that you read our competition on occasions but never, never miss reading us.

Who knows how to run all of those complicated machines in room 304 and 305? Who does all the reports on attendance, on Kraft points, on junior and senior fees? They do, and they are the FDPA kids. We're grateful to them; as editors of the Jonesite, we have asked them to do many rush jobs on names, and they smile, push the right button and there they are. Sewing Club

Fashion, fabric, design, craftsmanship and the exploration of your own creative talents, all of these are the concern of the Sewing Club. Sewing is a talent which is not to be lightly regarded. Unless you have a secret supply of dollars with which to buy the latest fashions, you will profit by learning to sew well. Lucky club members have made their Easter outfits, dance dresses and gifts. Say could you help me hem a dress later?

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club was organized on September 4, 1969, and it has been one of the busiest clubs here at Jones. The adoption of a boy in Mexico, the distribution of free carnations on the 5th of May, the Spanish Club dance on May 8th, performances, shows, picnics, and restaurants were only a few of the many activities this fabulous club was engaged in.

Yearbook Editorial Staff

"That's us!" "Beg your pardon, that's we is correct." We, us, work in room 507. The work is hard, the hours are long, the pay is poor, but we love the yearbook, and we hope you do too. The yearbook staff knows everything, goes everywhere and writes or photographs it.

Yearbook Financial Staff

Yearbook Financial Staff members are the business-end of the Jonesite. It's their job to sell the yearbook to Juniors, collect the fees, sell advertisements to our friends. Thanks to them and Mr. Miller, the bookkeeping is done, the printer is paid and the yearbook is delivered to your hands.

Drama Club

These club pictures were taken on-stage during a performance of "Up The Down Staircase" which was presented by the Drama Club to an appreciative audience in our auditorium. The popular book has been made into a movie and a play. While most of the play is comedy, there are a few scenes that develop the serious crisis that face pupils and teachers. The Jones stars did a terrific job judging from the laughter and applause.

Students wait for cue.

Paul Barringer, the teacher, corrects a love letter?

What is the trouble now?

Sylvia Barrett, the teacher, explains directions.

Looking up with high hopes.

A pep talk before the play.

Behind the scenes.

Tour Guides

On any given day a sophomore may come to Jones to see what it's all about. Only to discover that the Jones girl is real, alive, living, learning and earning. Special tour guides show the visitors from top to bottom.

Seniors

Mr. Carey gets careful attention and a carnation in preparation for the 1970 Senior Prom.

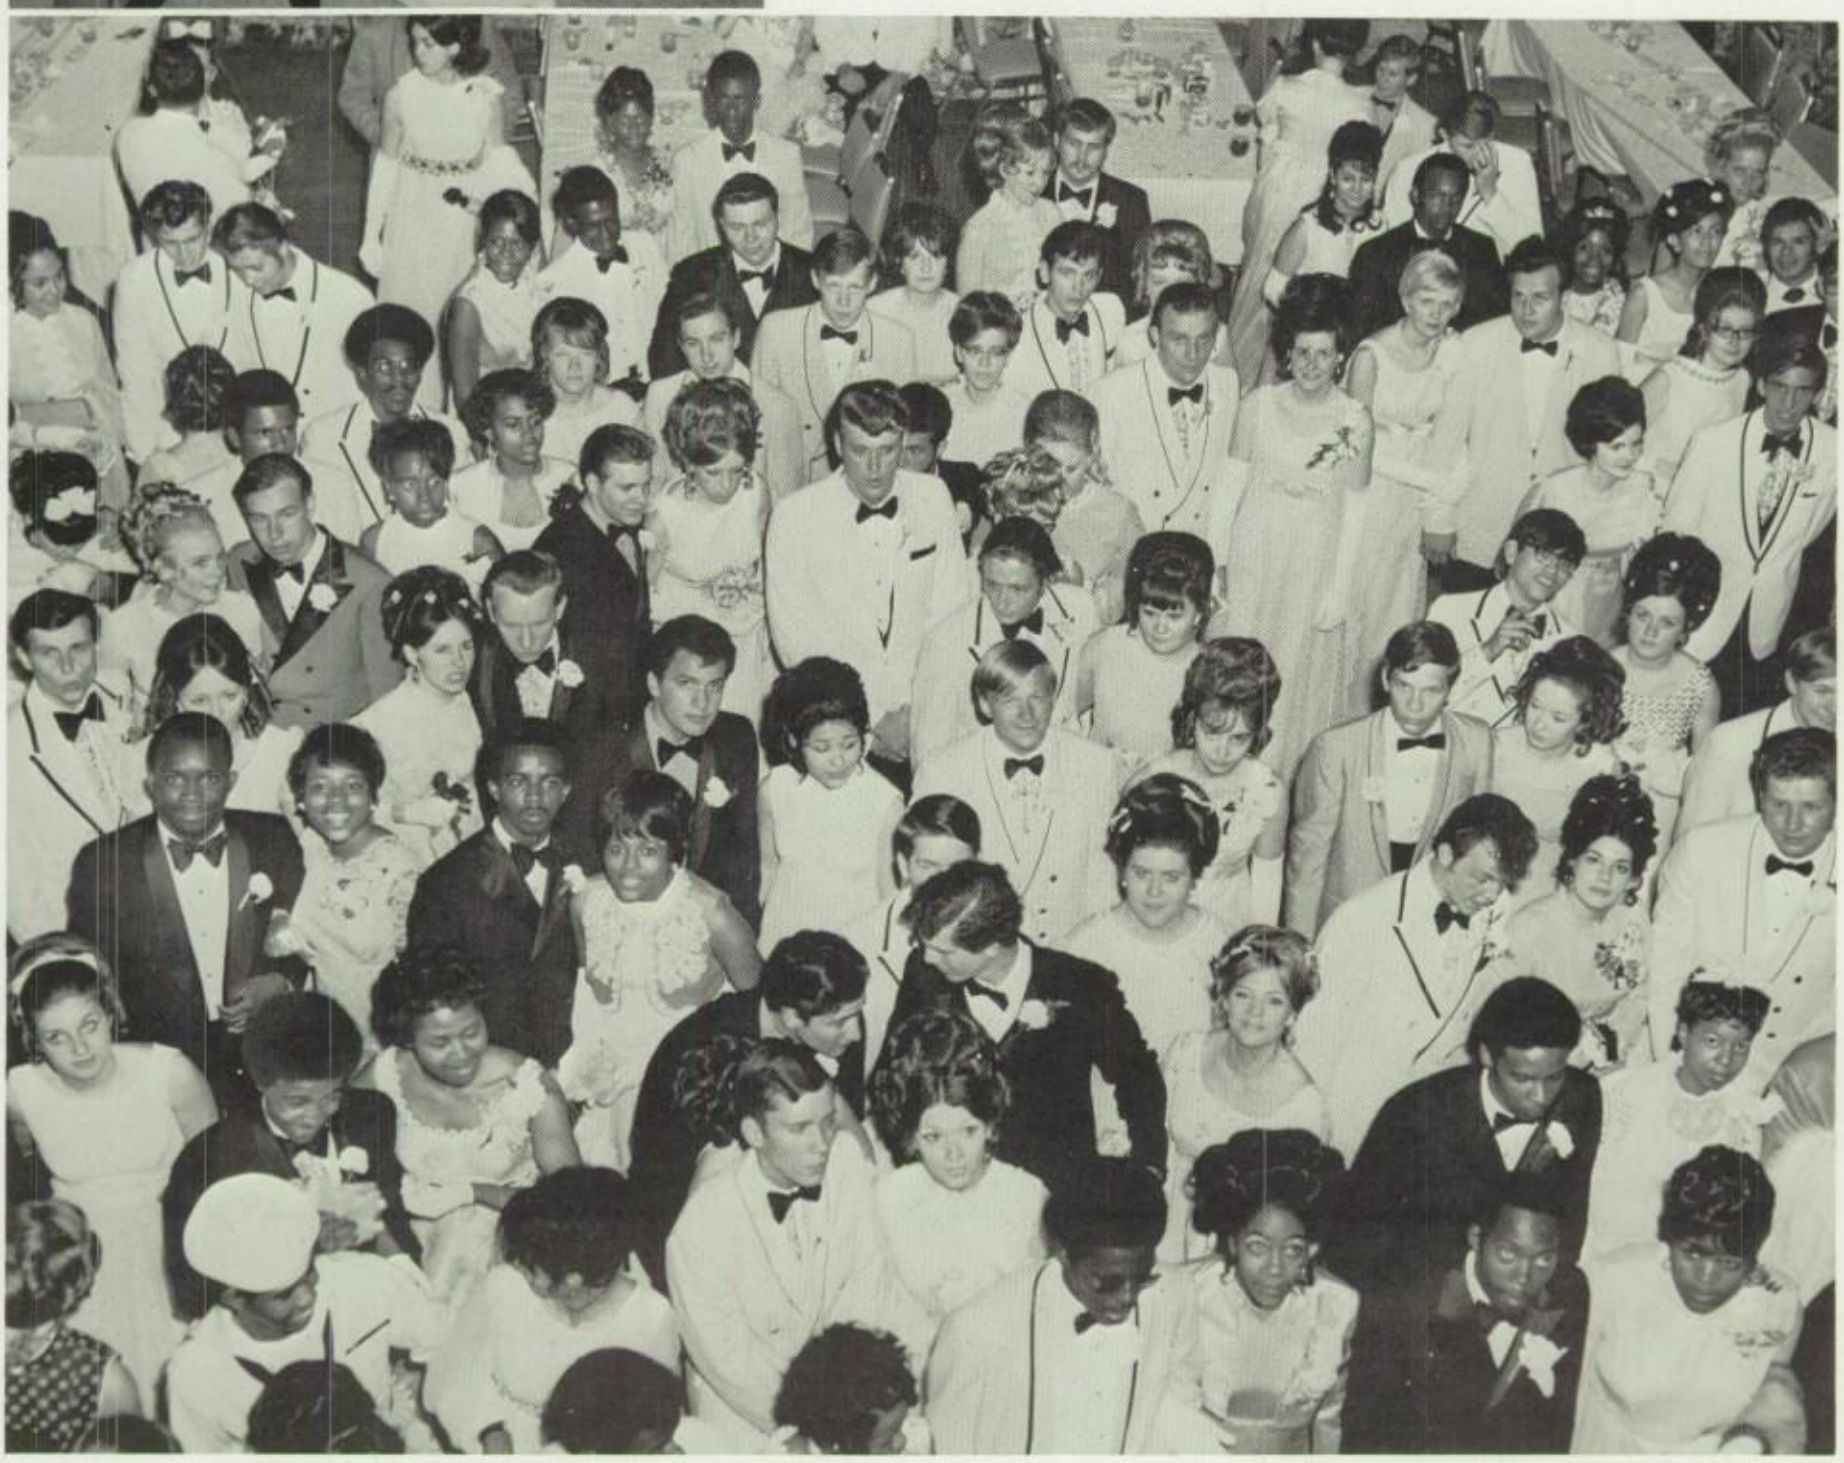
The prom queen, Frances Harris, and her delighted escort are introduced to the audience.

The Queen and her court.

The Prom: Memories

On such things, memories are made - a magical evening at the Gold Room of the Pick Congress Hotel. With music, loud and happy, the seniors danced away the hours looking as if they were touched by some magic wand which scattered starlight and enchantment over the prom.

It was a grand night for marching and a grand Grand March.



Our Colorful Memories. . .

Invocation

Members of the faculty, fellow classmates -

We are gathered together as a class for nearly the last time. Daily we have prayed together for world peace, especially a peace that would bring our beloved boys home from foreign lands free from the dangers and the deadly hazards of war. We have danced together, we have studied together, we have played together; together we have learned the great joys of fellowship and human dignity. These past two years at Jones have been filled with togetherness. Together let us ask Almighty God to bless us and our food today and to grant us bountiful futures.

Help us, Almighty God, to make this a better world for all of us.

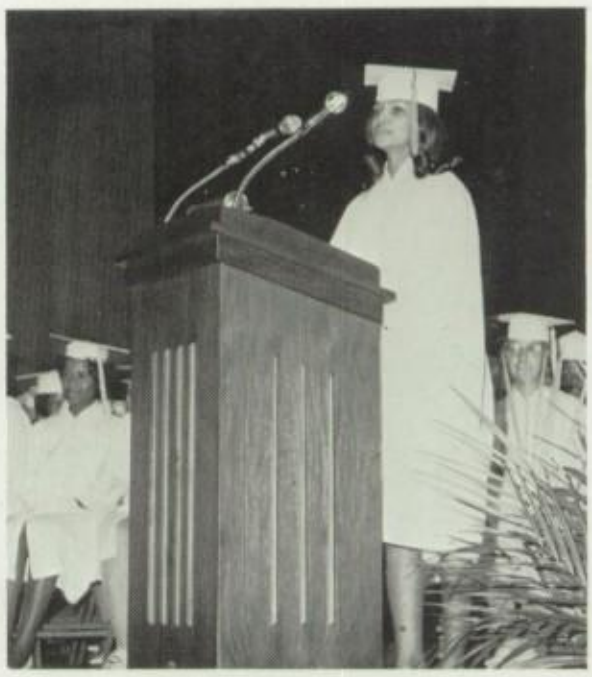
Graduation June 1970



Dr. Hobart H. Sommers, supervisor of the United States Office of Education and former superintendent in charge of vocational education for the Chicago Public Schools, delivered the Commencement remarks at Jones' Fifty-ninth Commencement Exercises held at Medinah Temple on Friday, June 19. Dr. Sommers praised the graduates on their accomplishments, the training they received at Jones, their parents, the faculty and Mr. Carey for a job truly well done.

In Appreciation

The yearbook staff is grateful to the people who worked so diligently in the preparation of the Jonesite. Special thanks go to Mr. Tony Gritz of Marshall Studio who patiently coaxed us into our best smiles and to his boss Mr. Tony Comunale for helping us to schedule the elaborate calendar. Mr. Samuel Buchanan, for all his fine advice and hard work, wins a special Jones smile as his reward. We are very thankful to the non-staff members who gave up their time to help us, especially with the typing and other details. Thanks again to Mrs. Bresnahan who knew the answers to our many questions. Thanks All!
